

May Hoon holds a bachelor's degree in Accountancy from Nanyang Technological University, Singapore.

Starting her career in Ernst and Young Singapore, May Hoon has extensive experience in family offices such as Tecity Group and RGE Group where she managed the Middle Office and Finance functions, trust accounting and strategic planning.

At Dragonfly Education Group, she oversees the family office and also the finances of the underlying businesses. May Hoon works alongside with the Board to plan for long term strategic growth, capital allocation and private equity investments.